SIR,

I am directed to forward herewith a copy of letter No.41/2/51-Public dated 7/2/1951 from the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, and to request that, if there is no objection, the practice followed in the Madras State may kindly be intimated.

No.41/2/51-Public,
Government of India,
Ministry of Home Affairs,
New Delhi, Feb. 7, 1951.

My dear Seth/Sachdev/etc.

We understand that it is the practice in some States for Ministers to display, on the bonnets of their cars, flags containing a symbol such as "M" or "CM" in addition to the national flag. While we appreciate that it may be necessary to display the additional flag, we feel that the symbol "M" or "CM" is not a very appropriate one and we suggest that it be replaced by the State Crest. If it is desired to make a distinction between the Chief Ministers, Speakers and Cabinet Ministers in the States, different coloured backgrounds may be used for the State Crest. We shall be grateful if this suggestion could be brought to the notice of the Hon'ble the Chief Minister and the result communicated to us in due course.

Yours sincerely,

(SD) H.V.R.IYENGAR.

The Chief Secretaries of all Part A and B States.
